Executive Committee Meeting Agenda

The Executive Committee will meet on Monday, November 9, to review administrative reports and the school's current financial position. The Committee will also consider potential next steps regarding the Education Freedom Tax Credit Program following a report from the Head of School on his November 6 meeting with the South Dakota Christian School Association. This discussion will help guide the school's response and determine how best to move forward as additional information becomes available.

Prayer Corner

Each school day morning, JVC staff meets to pray for our families. Will you pray as well?
